FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

International Maritime Agency Ltd. (IMA) joins Global Project Logistics Network (GPLN)

International Maritime Agency Ltd. (IMA) has joined GPLN with their Kenya, Mozambique and Tanzania offices. IMA is part of AMI International Ltd. which was founded in 1919 in Belgium. After a management change in 2000 their head office is nowadays based in Dubai which has also African staff members. Over the years they developed into a full-fledged logistics organization with a focus on Africa. New GPLN member IMA is recognized for the trade lanes between Africa and China, India, Pakistan, Canada and UAE. In the past their offices in Mombasa, Dar es Salaam and Beira have handled various projects, such as transformers for the power sector in Tanzania and Kenya, brewery tanks in Tanzania and Kenya, an aluminum plant from Kenya to Tanzania, a telecommunication network via Beira to Malawi, and various construction equipment in different locations, just to name a few.

Please visit IMA's album on the GPLN Facebook page:
