FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Universal Transport joins Global Project Logistics Network (GPLN)

Universal Transport has joined GPLN with their offices in the Czech Republic and Germany. Universal Transport was founded over 60 years ago in Paderborn, Germany and handles heavy-duty turnkey projects involving a number of different modes of transport on land, sea and air for customers in various industries, such as construction, wind energy, rail, mechanical and plant engineering etc. Universal Transport boasts one of the largest fleets of vehicles for the transportation of heavy loads in Germany and Europe and is one of the leading providers of heavy-duty and special transportation services. GPLN member Universal Transport is certified as Authorized Economic Operator (AEO) as they have met the criteria for customs compliance, appropriate record-keeping, financial solvency, and appropriate security and safety standards.

To see some of Universal Transport's' moves please go to their album on the GPLN Facebook page:
