FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Magellan Logistics from Dar es Salaam in Tanzania joins Global Project Logistics Network (GPLN)

Magellan Logistics Tanzania Limited, the new GPLN member based in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, is a subsidiary of a multinational logistics group which has a turnover of over USD 125 million per annum and around 500 employees. In East Africa, they are actively involved in cross border logistics and ship agency. GPLN member Magellan Logistics has handled in the past cement plant machinery and mining equipment, besides ODC and various project cargoes. Their specialty is the transport of transformers and rigging operations related to heavy equipment and they are also capable of handling project cargo movement via barges along the East African coast, which gives them access to smaller ports / landing stations that are close to the actual project site.

To see some of Magellan's moves please go to their album on the GPLN Facebook page:
