FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GPLN member Velogic adds offices in Mauritius & Reunion to GPLN network

Velogic, a GPLN member from Madagascar, has added their offices in Mauritius and Reunion to the network. This gives GPLN now coverage in two countries where the network had no representation. Rogers and Company Limited, the holding company of Velogic, has been an innovative contributor to the development of the Mauritian economy since 1899. Velogic offers all logistics activities conducted over more than 30 years by Rogers and Company Limited. Their corporate office is located in Mauritius and other offices are operated in Reunion, Madagascar, Mozambique, Bangladesh, France and India. GPLN member Velogic's project team has handled in the past various projects in the Indian Ocean Region, such as sugar factories and power stations, including an engine for the 90-megawatt Fort Victoria Power Plant with a weight of 250 tons and a dimension of 14.53 meters long, 4.10 meters wide and 6.34 meters high, the largest and heaviest cargo ever moved in Mauritius.

To see some of Velogic's moves please go to their album on the GPLN Facebook page:
