PRESS RELEASE

January 28, 2015

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Maersk Line joins Global Project Logistics Network (GPLN) as a sponsor

Maersk Line becomes the first container shipping line to sponsor Global Project Logistics Network (GPLN). Maersk Line is the global container division and the largest operating unit of the A.P. Moller – Maersk Group, a Danish business conglomerate.

With a dedicated expert team, an extensive network and many years of commercial and operational experience with special cargo, Maersk Line offers special shipping services and equipment for three types of oversized cargo: "In Gauge", "Out of Gauge" and "Break Bulk".

Maersk Line will be also joining GPLN's 12th Annual General Meeting in Bangkok from February 8-10, 2015 and introduce their services to over 160 GPLN delegates from all parts of the world who have registered for this conference.

About Global Project Logistics Network (GPLN)

The Global Project Logistics Network (GPLN) is the largest and most recognized non-exclusive projects logistics network specializing in international projects movements and specialized lifts.
