FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

C. Steinweg Logistics South Africa and C. Steinweg France join Global Project Logistics Network(GPLN)

C. Steinweg was founded in December 1847 in Rotterdam as a shipping agent. The network of European offices has been growing ever since the 1950's with expansion into Asia and South America during the 1980's, followed by North America, the Middle East, Africa and Russia / Baltic in the 1990's.

GPLN member C. Steinweg Logistics (Pty) Ltd. South Africa was incorporated in 1984 and is operating three offices in Durban, Johannesburg and Cape Town with presently 49 employees. During the past 3 years this GPLN project specialist has handled an 80 ton turbine, 80 ton and 153 ton ball mills, twelve 100 ton mill shells, and three 30m long silos, besides various breakbulk steel machinery and equipment from 2000 up to 3000 ton, just to name a few.

C. Steinweg France was established in 2003 in Pessac which is located in southwestern France and is the second-largest suburb of the city of Bordeaux. GPLN member C. Steinweg Franc's project cargo division consists of a dedicated team that handled in the past various Industrial projects for governments, besides transportation of heavy lift and oversized cargoes as far away as The Republic of the Congo, New Caledonia, La Reunion, Mauritius, Madagascar and other French overseas Departments and Territories.

To see some of C. Steinweg's moves please go to their respective albums on the GPLN Facebook page:
